REFERENCE : (a) SEMICC Memo Case 3538, Ser. 0249-N, 25 March 1960
(b) SACLANT Ser. 299, 18 March 1960

1. Enclosed is one up-to-date copy of the Intelligence Subject Code as requested by referenced memoranda. Chapters have issuance dates of 1957 and 1958.

2. This publication represents the code now being used by SHAPE headquarters and subordinate commands as well as by several NATO countries at the national intelligence level.

3. We understand that the SHAPE adaptation known as the SISC has been adopted for use within the military organization of NATO.

4. For your information the ISC was completely revised as of February 1960 under the auspices of the USIB Committee on Documentation. However, in view of the above facts, we feel that SACLANT would not want the revised edition.
